

Adjective v/s Pronoun

This is my car.

I want this car.

These are Rohan's friends

Mohan has sent these gifts for you.

I have visited Rohan's house.

Raj stole Pulkit's car.

Adjective as a Subject Complement

He threw a big stone at me.

Ajay is rich.

Aman is smart.

Rahul is tall.

➤ Adverb :- It qualifies a verb, adjective or adverb.

A horse runs.

A horse runs fast.

A horse runs very fast.

The president rewarded the extraordinarily brave soldiers.

I saw an extremely tall man in the park.

She performed the task careful/carefully/care.

He is an arrogant/arrogantly/arrogance man.

You should not leave the path of honest/honesty/honestly.

Indian soldiers fought the war bravely/brave/bravery.

