

SYN/ANT LECTURE – 18

Behold	See with attention
Aggravate	To make worse
Prolong	Lengthen in time
Cruise	An ocean trip taken for pleasure
Factual	Having the quality or characteristic of being true
Reminiscence	A retelling of a past experience
Rehabilitate	To bring back to a healthy or useful state
Harrowing	Producing pain or discomfort
Diabolical	very evil
Vagrant	An individual who lacks regular work and moves around frequently
Desolate	Empty; without life
Imitate	To copy or simulate the function of something else
Ingredients	Any substance used to create a particular dish
Elevate	Raise in rank or condition
Explicit	Specific about rules or what is required
Commotion	The act of making a noisy disturbance
Affluent	A person who is financially well off
Whimsical	Determined by chance or impulse or whim rather than by necessity or reason
Profound	Of the greatest intensity
Melancholic	Characterized by or causing or expressing sadness

Concise	Expressing much in few words
Glorious	Characterized by grandeur
Adequate	Sufficient for the purpose
Principal	Most important element
Intelligible	Capable of being comprehended
Acquisitive	Eager and capable of making acquisitions
Anguish	Extreme suffering or grief
Disgruntled	In a state of sulky dissatisfaction
Sincere	Open and genuine
Intricate	Highly involved or complex
Parched	Having a strong need for moisture
Lavish	Very generous
Divulge	To make something known
Contentment	A feeling of being happy and satisfied
Virtue	A moral and praiseworthy trait
Deface	To damage or disfigure something
Humility	The state in which one does not view himself as being better than others
Audacious	Disposed to venture or take risks
Inflate	To fill something up with air or gas
Zenith	The strongest or most successful period of time
Partition	A divider that breaks up an area
Gloomy	Filled with dejection